

Pregnancy for many women and men is a reason for celebration but for some, however, it brings mixed emotions and thoughts:

- 📍 A baby, now?
- 📍 Will I have to break off my studies?
- 📍 Will I have to give up my job?
- 📍 Is our relationship strong enough for a baby?
- 📍 Can we cope with a second child?
- 📍 Will I be able to take care of a child alone?
- 📍 How will I support myself?
- 📍 Am I too young?
- 📍 What will my parents say?
- 📍 Am I too old?
- 📍 Can I be a good mother/father?

As a pregnancy counselling centre we respect your specific situation and needs. We offer you advice and counselling in a manner that leaves the decision open and support you in reaching an informed, responsible decision.
